

The Persian Student Association at Stanford University proudly presents...

“History and Role of the Violin in Traditional Persian Music”

by renowned Iranian composer, violinist and improviser,
Maestro Loghman Adhami

A special program featuring interactive discussions & live demonstrations

Program details:

7PM - 9PM, Sunday September 9, 2007, Havana room, Graduate Community Center (GCC), Stanford University

Address: 750 Escondido Road, Stanford, CA 94305

Admission is free of charge. Not intended for children of 10 years of age or younger.

Directions from 280: Exit Sand Hill Road and head east, turn right onto El Camino Real, turn right onto Serra St., turn left onto Campus Dr., make a left onto Escondido Road. The GCC will be to your right.

Directions from 101: Exit Oregon Expwy and head west, turn right onto El Camino Real, turn left onto Serra St., turn left onto Campus, Dr., make a left onto Escondido Road. The GCC will be to your right.

